MILLER HUGGINS SHREWD LEADER

Fast Thinking Manager of Cardinals Was Trained
For the Bar.

Chicago, Ill., July 18.—Miller Huggins, leader of the St. Louis Cardinals, intended to become a lawyer when he was a lad. He liked to play baseball, but possessed such a keen mentality his parents wanted he follow the law. So the youth abandoned bats and balls and took up the textbooks. He studied long and laboriously in the schools of his home town, near Cincinnati, and afterward took a course in the University of Cincinnati, from which he was graduated with high honors. He was admitted to the bar of Ohio, but it never has been recorded that Miller Huggins, lawyer, rung out his shining sword of justice. He proved too strong for the average Blackstone to resist. Huggins had made a reputation in Cincinnati and environs as a shrewd lawyer, and he had no difficulty in finding employment on the diamond. He liked the game because it afforded an opportunity to shine. And Miller Huggins will go down in the annals of the game as one of the greatest thinkers in the game.

MARANVILLE IS STAR INFILDER OF NATIONAL LEAGUE THIS SEASON

Sensational Shortstop Has Been Doing Wonderful Work and is Rated as One of the Best in Baseball; Is Not as Tall as Johnny Evers, and Has the Sensational
Form of the Famous Second Baseman.

CHICAGO, Ill., July 18.—Best ball players in the National League are many, but there is one with the Boston Braves who stands out like the highlight on a locomotive. He is not a giant in stature, he is not constructed like Hank Wagner, and is not the style of athlete whose play-acted makeup attracts attention. He is small, but nevertheless a star because he is a bundle of nerve and possesses the qualities of a great player. The player referred to is Walter Maranville, shortstop of the Braves, who is called "Flash" by his friends, his players and his admirers because he resembles a flash in action when he comes over the ground after a hot ball and skids around the bases on a hit.

He does not seem to possess the speed of some other players in the league, but he is a wonderfully quick ball accumulator in everything he does that he stands out all by himself as a shortstop.

Maranville not only has the quickness with which to do things, but also the ability to think and act quickly. He is a player of strength, to the "Flash" infield and without him the club does not look the same.

It reminds one of the days when Johnny Evers was at his best and was taken from the old Red Sox club for a few days. The club suffered through his absence, and the Boston club does the same now when "Flash" is incapacitated.

There are few players in the game who have more average than Maranville. He is like a dynamo that is al-

By HUB RUTHERFORD.

BILL PELFREY'S snappy Western team, a sign that has attracted much interest and probably has the greatest following of any team City league team, will be given a definite tryout Sunday afternoon when they are slated to go up against the hard hitting Hurty Eaters, pace-setters of the column. In meeting his present team Pelfrey has undoubtedly been trailed by a hard luck jinx as the aggressive manager has gotten several suggestions of fast baseball players together this season only to see them fade under the call for volunteers, and be assigned elsewhere. At present, however, he has one of the fastest clubs that has been seen around here in some time, and the fans will doubtless have some fun in seeing numbers to witness the game.

Local fans of the 4th regular season, will be well pleased with the results of the game. If he knows what the fans of the City league want, he will make several efforts to this effect. Who is well known to some baseball fans, and it is regarded as practically certain that he will succeed to the point of the game.

A canvas of players Tuesday afternoon developed that the members of the different teams were exceedingly in favor of the officer officiating as referee, provided that he would consent to do so.

CIVILIAN fans are requested not to forget the game Saturday afternoon between the Eighth regular cavalry and the Feldman team of the City league. The game is one of a series that is being arranged to promote both civilian and soldier interest in the national pastime, and to place them in a friendly relation. Several hundred fans attended a game last Saturday afternoon, between the crack Fifth Cavalry team and the Feldman team.

MIRACLE FROM HOSION. After all that miracle stuff that have been hot another Boston fan and now shown into the discard after a short lived popularity.

MISS BJURSTEDT WILL COMPETE

New York, N. Y., July 18.—Miss Mary K. Bjurstedt, of California, will compete in the first of the tennis matches arranged by the United States National Lawn Tennis association, at the Mainland Country Club, at Newport, R. I., today. It was announced here Tuesday, William M. Johnston and Harold A. Johnston, of the United States National Lawn Tennis association, who are in charge of the tournament, that Miss Bjurstedt will be the only woman player to compete in the tournament.

FRANKLIN BAKER IS EXONERATED

Chicago, Ill., July 18.—Franklin Baker, third baseman with the New York Americans, was exonerated of alleged tampering charges by president Johnson of the American league Tuesday.

Baker, in a letter to the league executive, stated that he had attempted to induce pitcher Allen Sothern of the St. Louis club to accept a bribe to play for the Americans, but that he had refused the offer. He also stated that he had advised the young pitcher to remain with St. Louis.

TIGERS ON TAIL END OF LEAGUE

It's a funny world, Tom. In the end of the league, who has been one of these to talk most about the woods and the fall of the leaves, and the result, to take the Tigers of the National league players who won't take salary cuts has been hanging up the white flag, offering a kind of coin for players who might help his talented Tigers.

TWIRLER KALLIO
NOW A BENEDICT

Ray Kallio, pitcher for Des Moines, took unto himself a bride the other day. The bride was Miss Eva Rosenberg, of Portland, Ore., who came on to Des Moines for the wedding. Kallio celebrated his wedding day by pitching a shutout game against Omaha and winning it with his own pitching.
